

SARAH SLEETH

Sarah Sleeth started in the entertainment industry as a radio producer at Corus Entertainment (London, ON) and CHRY (Toronto, ON).

She joined the marketing team at Six Shooter Records (Tanya Tagaq, July Talk, Whitehorse) in 2014 and dove headfirst into marketing and operations for the label and their roster. She played an integral part in releasing over 70 projects with Six Shooter which resulted in multiple Juno Awards and nominations, Gold and Platinum Singles, and an array of Canadian Folk Music Award victories and nominations.

Most recently, Sleeth left her position as Director of Operations at Six Shooter to launch her own label, Twin Fang Records, which is dedicated to increasing representation of female, queer, non-binary, trans artists and allies in the music industry.
